

Rozella Haydée White Biography

Rozella Haydée White is a woman desperately seeking justice, mercy, humility, and love. Known as the #LoveBig Coach, Rozella is the owner of RHW Consulting, which provides spiritual life coaching, leadership consultation, inspirational writing & speaking, and retreat leading focused on restoring hearts to wholeness. Rozella desires to empower people as they create and live their most meaningful life and that includes seeking growth, healing, and transformation.

Rozella is also the co-founder of Sacred Travel Journeys, a soon-to-be non-profit organization striving to foster awareness, peace and love through travel journeys that transform the soul. Sacred Travel Journeys is committed to providing life-changing experiences for people of color, young adults and families. These journeys call participants into relationship with their global brothers and sisters to grow in their knowledge of self, others and their role in addressing issues of injustice in their home community.

Rozella is a contributing author for numerous books and blogs, including shepreaches and the Salt Collective. She has published many articles for digital and print resources on topics such as leadership, justice, faith, being a woman in ministry and self-care. Her first solo book, #LoveBig: The Power of Revolutionary Relationships to Heal the World will be published by Theology for the People, a division of Fortress Press in 2018.

As a writer, teacher, preacher and public theologian, Rozella is a known presence, boldly engaging issues of faith, justice, self-awareness, revolutionary relationships, mental illness and the radical and transformative love of God as embodied in the person of Jesus.
